Rancho Cielo Homeowner's Association Newsletter Supplement

November 2004

Thanks to everyone who sent e-mail to me regarding the first HOA supplement. I really appreciate the positive feedback and am happy to get your comments and suggestions for future events. If I don't get input from owners, this newsletter will be all about me, and believe me, I could write pages. So, for your own good, send me stuff about your businesses, classified ads, parties and such or suffer the consequences.

Holiday Boutique

2-5 p.m. on Saturday, November 20

Rancho Cielo's First Annual Holiday Boutique (RCFAHB, I can't help myself) is scheduled to take place outside in the Via Allegra cul-de-sac. So far there are five businesses/crafters participating and there is still room for more. Contact me at Sandra.Spencer@cox.net if you would like to have a "booth". Otherwise, bring your wallet and a friend, enjoy a cup of hot chocolate and buy some gifts. Come on, it'll be fun! Unless it rains. If it rains, look for a sign on Via Allegra directing you to an indoor location. Hey, people need to shop, rain or shine.

A Few Good Men

Cynthia Hammork (Via del Lago) wants to share an article from the Camp Pendleton Marine YMCA:

"Thanksgiving truly reflects our nation's spirit of sharing, giving, and gratitude for the freedoms we as a nation have worked so hard to maintain both here and abroad. As you may know, there are Camp Pendleton Marines and Sailors who will not be here this holiday, and we will hold them and their families in our thoughts and prayers. For those military members who are here and cannot be with their loved ones, please consider opening your home to those who protect our freedom and to celebrate this very American holiday. This Camp Pendleton ASYMCA program is called "Home Hospitality," and last year over 900 Marines were gifted with an experience of surrounding community members opening their homes in friendship. Most of these Marines are fresh out of boot camp and away from home for the first time during a holiday. They have been sent to Camp Pendleton for School of Infantry training just prior to their first duty station. Since these military members are not allowed to drive, they are brought to a pick-up point off the base where you can retrieve the two Marines you will host for the day (they must travel in pairs). If you have not yet participated in this heart-warming and uplifting program, please call ASYMCA Event Coordinator Dawn Baker. She will hopefully persuade you to share your holiday with these young men. For those of you who plan on hosting this year, contact Dawn Baker at (760) 385-4921 and she will put your name on the list."

Cynthia and her family have hosted Marines for Thanksgiving for three years and says that it's a wonderful experience for all. If you would like more details, please contact Cynthia at: cynthy@hawaii.com.

Home Based Businesses

The Candle-Sanddal-Sisters “We get paid to have fun and meet new people!” My name is Suzy Sanddal and I’m a resident here in beautiful Rancho Cielo (Camino Del Cielo).

My sister Sandy and I have found the joys of having our own PartyLite business! With PartyLite, you can decorate your home, illuminate your spirit (by enjoying our captivating lights and fragrances), and celebrate your life with family and friends! You can earn hostess gifts and incentives by simply hosting a party! Let us help you meet your neighbors by “breaking the ice” and having a PartyLite party! The holidays are quickly approaching and our “party calendar” is filling up. We do all the work (show invites, setup/tear down) and provide entertainment. You supply the appetizers, your home and friends. Call us to book your PartyLite party and for our monthly show specials. We are looking forward to meeting you at our first annual Rancho Cielo Holiday Boutique on Nov. 20 as well. Contact me at 858-7661 or Suzy at 265-7134 or e-mail us at: candlesanddalsisters@yahoo.com.

Need a new glamour look for that holiday party? Call me, Carlita Gasparini (Via del Lago), a beauty consultant with Mary Kay cosmetics for 12 years. I would love to offer you some pamper time before the rush of the holiday season is upon us. I also have some great gift ideas for those tough people on your shopping list. Call me at (949) 709-0630 or email Carlita\_MK@hotmail.com to set up an appointment for a free consultation with no obligation to purchase. I would love to meet some of my neighbors in Rancho Cielo!

From Someone Who Knows

Looking to spruce up your home but don’t have the cash? By Alan Neilson

If you feel like everyone around is remodeling you’re probably right. You may be thinking of doing a few things yourself but, may not have the cash. There are other options available. With rates being so low, a line of credit or second mortgage are good alternatives. Don’t be deterred if you have poor credit or need a no income qualification loan, there are many options available. I have been a mortgage banker for over 12 years and obtained a line of credit to remodel my kitchen. It was a quick and easy process. To find out what options are available to you, call Alan Neilson. I live in Rancho Cielo (La Subida) and would be happy to help you! 888-6484 or email me at:

Just For Fun

Fall Make-Up Tip #1. Dark lipstick makes you look older. It’s true. Yes, even at night. Yes, even after a few drinks. Don’t believe me? Next time you are at Albertson’s, check out all the old ladies. They wear dark lipstick. Don’t be one of them! Throw those dark pinks and bright reds away and try out some lighter, more neutral shades with a little gloss over it. Fall Make-Up Tip #2. If you have lipstick older than your Kindergarten, throw it out. The lipstick, not (you know the rest).
